

FOUR CARD POKER WITH BAD BEAT BONUS

Four Card Poker is played with a 52 card deck. There are three circles in front of each player marked: Aces Up, Ante and 1x to 3x Ante. The play begins with the player making independent wager on either the Aces Up or Ante portion of the game or both by placing the bet in the corresponding circle.

Although it is called Four Card Poker the player is dealt five cards face down and must be the best four card hand. The dealer is dealt six cards which are used to make the best four card hand. One of the dealer's cards is dealt face up.

Unlike Three Card Poker, the dealer does not have to qualify in order for the game to continue. After looking at your cards you can fold and lose your Ante bet or make an additional Play bet to continue. The minimum bet you can make must be equal to your original bet you can elect to make a bet up to three time the amount of your original Ante bet.

Four Card Poker also offers an Ante Bonus that is paid in addition to the Ante and play bet, based on the player's hand for the Ante game. You will be paid for the bonus regardless if the dealer beats your hand or not.
